

Lake Wilderness Golf Course

A Historical Perspective

Early History

- Built in 1930's as a 9 hole golf course - part of "Gaffney's Grove" Resort
- All 9 holes were on the lower portion of the golf course, where holes 15-18 are located today
- Included a "day and night" driving range

Ownership

- Gaffney's Grove Resort (original owner)
- The Coleman Family
- Bellevue Based Developers
 - Started housing development
- Japanese Based Developers
 - Completed housing development
- American Golf Corporation
- City of Maple Valley
 - City contracted with Premier Golf Centers LLC to manage the course in April 2007.

Built as part of Gaffney's Lake Wilderness Resort

Gaffney's Lake Wilderness Resort

Dancing every Saturday and Sunday, 8-piece orchestra

47 housekeeping cottages. Automatic hot water. Gas ranges.

"Having Lots of Fun at Gaffney's Lake Wilderness"

Nine-hole course. Driving range.

Two large, safe, sandy beaches.

GAFFNEY'S
LAKE WILDERNESS

You Write

We Mail

Original club house located where 17th tee box is currently

Housing development started in the 1980's

Current 18 hole configuration opened as Wilderness Ridge in 1971.
Known as one of top courses in Pacific Northwest.

New 16,000 sq. ft. club house opened in 1970, remodeled in 1990's

Support facilities added in the 1990's

Questions?